

OJC Fall 2020: 11-Week Comparison Data

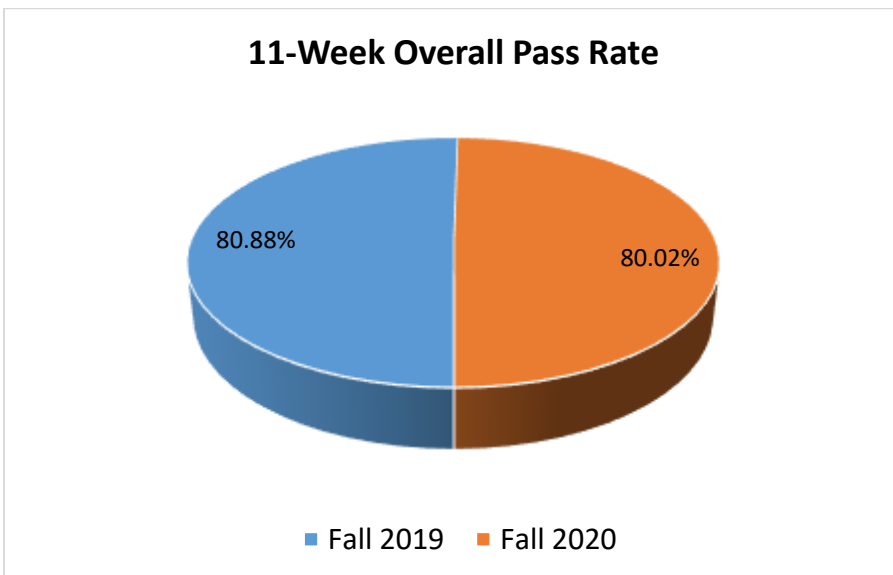

Prepared by Academic Affairs

11-Week Overall Withdraw Rate

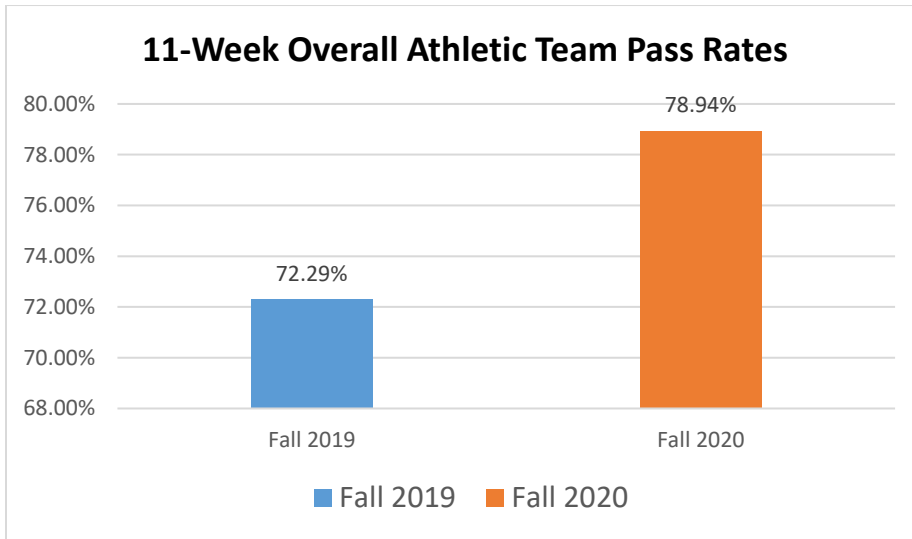

The Fall 2020 withdraw rate is down .28% from last fall.

11-Week Overall Pass Rate

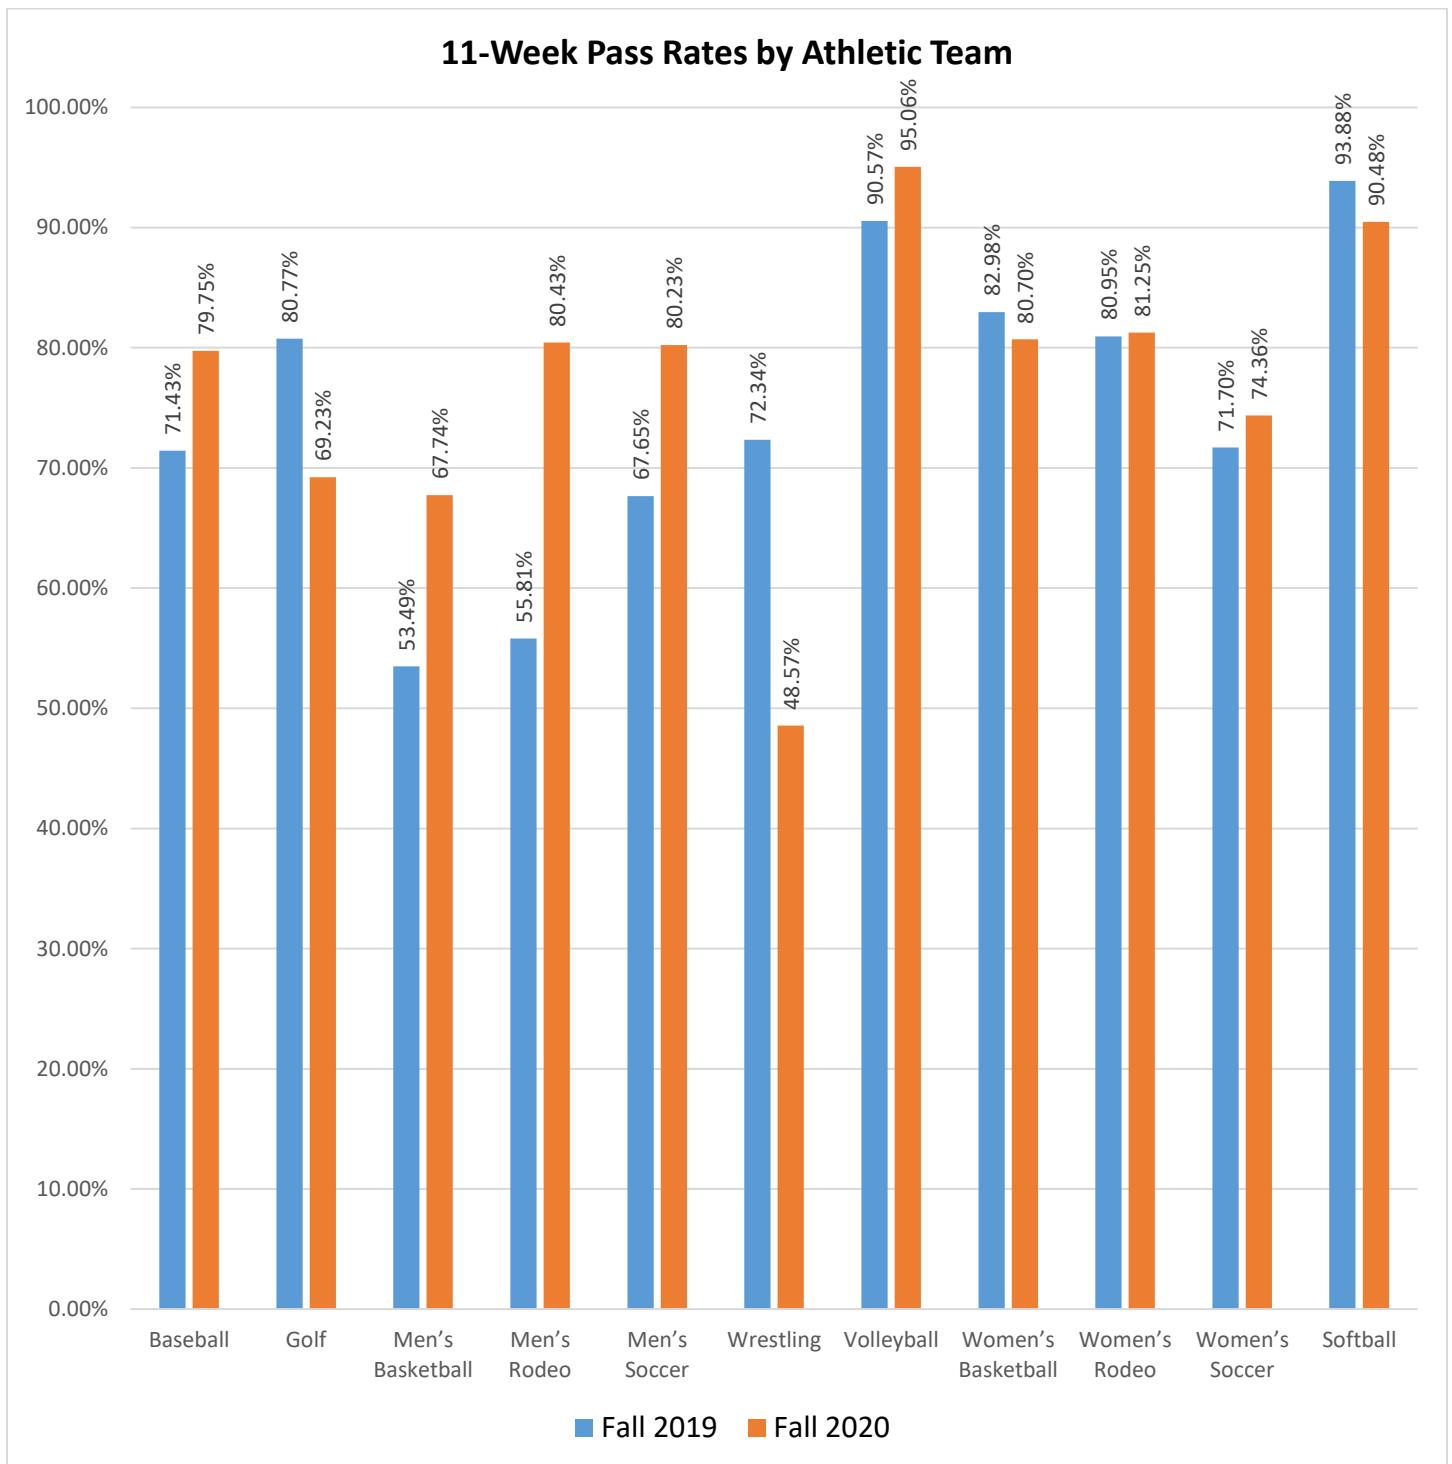

The overall Fall 2020 pass rate is down .86% from last fall.

11-Week Overall Athletic Pass Rates

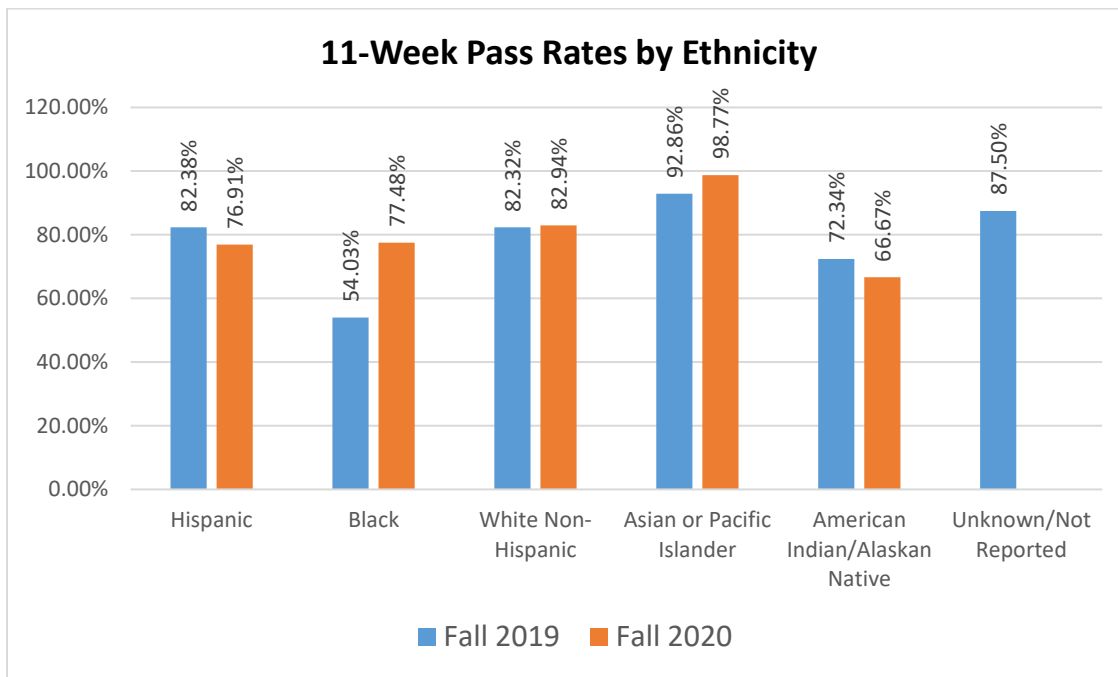

The overall athletic pass rate is up 6.65% from last fall.

11-Week Athletic Team Pass Rates

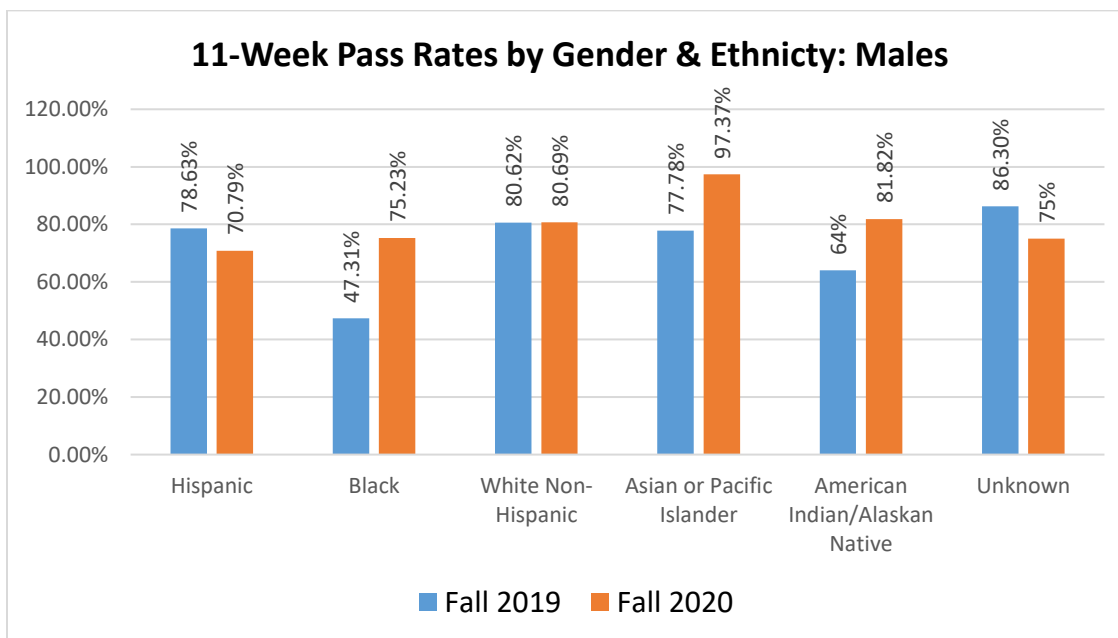

11-week pass rates for our baseball, men's basketball, men's rodeo, men's soccer, volleyball, women's rodeo, and women's soccer teams are higher than they were last fall. 11-week pass rates are lower for the golf team, wrestling team, women's basketball team, and softball team.

11-Week Pass Rates by Ethnicity

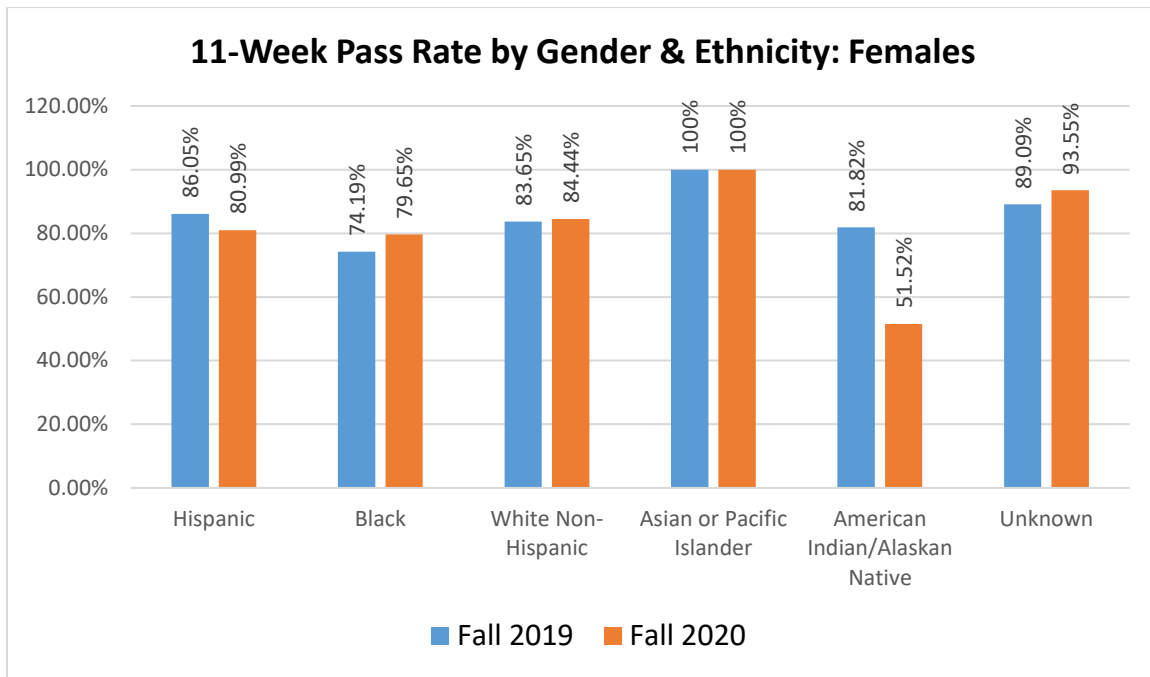

11-week pass rates for our Black, White Non-Hispanic, and Asian or Pacific Islander students are higher than they were last fall. 11-week pass rates are lower for our Hispanic, American Indian, and Unknown/Not Reported students.

Pass Rates by Gender and Ethnicity: Males

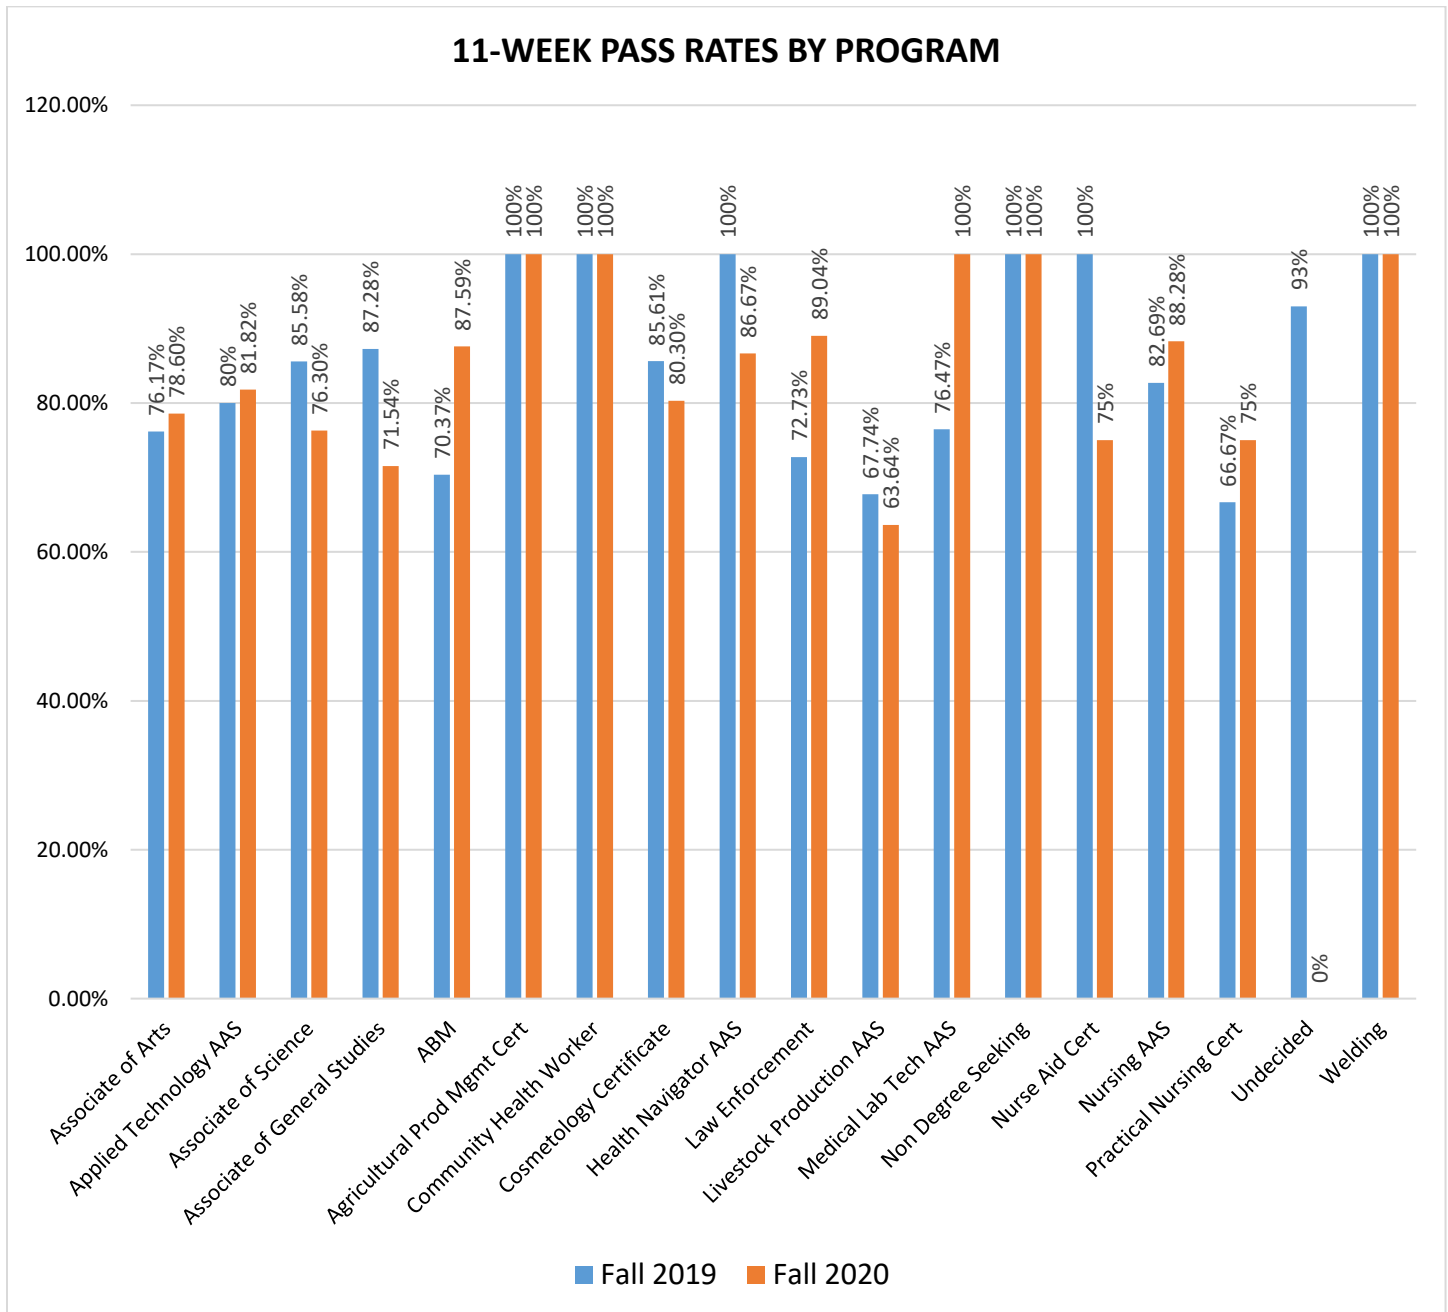

11-week pass rates for our Black, White Non-Hispanic, Asian or Pacific Islander, and American Indian/Alaskan Native male students are higher than they were last fall. 11-week pass rates are lower for our Hispanic and Unknown/Not Reported male students.

Pass Rates by Gender and Ethnicity: Females

11-week pass rates for our Black, White Non-Hispanic, and Unknown/Not Reported female students than they were last fall. 11-week pass rates are the same for our Asian or Pacific Islander female students, and lower for our Hispanic and American Indian/Alaskan Native female students.

Pass Rates by Program

11-week pass rates are higher in our Associate of Arts, Applied Technology AAS, ABM, Law Enforcement, Medical Lab Tech, Nursing AAS, and Practical Nursing programs than they were last fall. 11-week pass rates are the same in the Agricultural Production Management, Community Health Worker, Non-Degree Seeking, and Welding programs, and lower in our Associate of Science, Associate of General Studies, Cosmetology, Health Navigator AAS, Livestock Production AAS, and Nurse Aide programs.