- o Colorado resident total tuition cost is $242.90 for each semester hour and Colorado pays a $94 per hour Colorado opportunity Fund (COF) stipend to reduce that cost to $148.90 per semester hour.
- o The Colorado Opportunity Fund (COF) is limited to Colorado resident undergraduate instruction not to exceed 145 semester hours OR baccalaureate degree holders who have been granted an addition 30 credit hours under C.R.S. 23-18-202 (5) (c) (I).

NOTE: When you register as an OJC student you will start receiving notices such as information about on-line textbook ordering and required student orientations. You only need to purchase BDU pants, duty boots, personal items such as hygiene products, classroom supplies plus dorm room necessities if you are living on campus. If living on campus, your dorm room has a bed, a study desk and a clothes closet. You may bring other items such as a coffee maker, desk lamp, comfortable chair, small refrigerator or other items you believe will help during the academy. Campus housing is not mandatory but please do not attempt more than a 20-minute commute:

OJC Housing includes both room and board – meals are provided in the Sodexo cafeteria and the cost is $3,680 or $36 per day. The $36 per day is based on the 19 meal plan (3 meals weekdays and 2 meals per day on weekends) and the 102-day academy schedule.

Students are able to secure off-campus housing in the $450-$850 rent per month range ($14 to $30 per day for rent, and utilities based on a four-month lease), not including vehicle gas, meals or groceries. If you spend $8 to $15 per day for food, that figures approximately $22 to $45 per day for off campus apartment living, grocery shopping and cooking your own meals.

OJC LEA housing room and board: $3,680

(LEA students will be housed on a "first-come-first-served" order in which the housing application and $100 deposit are received)
