1. Mr. Earl “E.J.” Conley taught political science, government, and history at Otero Junior College for 28 years. E.J. died of complications resulting from Lou Gehrig’s disease in January 1998. He was an academic advisor to many students each year, and was the sponsor of Associated Student Government for many years. During his tenure, he impacted the lives of numerous students and colleagues. His many contributions, both financially and personally, to the college and the community, usually would go unrecognized. He was a great supporter of OJC Athletics, and was always ready to help no matter what the task. This scholarship was developed to honor the work of Earl “E.J.” Conley, and to continue his contributions to students attending OJC.

2. Recipients must be attending OJC on a full-time basis. Applicants must also meet one or more of the following requirements:
   * Member of Associated Student Government.
   * Participating in athletics at OJC.
   * Pursuing a major or minor in Political Science or History.

3. The scholarship is continued for a second year, if the recipient meets the above requirements and maintains a 2.5 grade point average.

4. The recipient is chosen by the Otero Junior College Scholarship Committee on the basis of letters of recommendation, academic achievements, and athletic performance in high school or college. (Financial need is not a requirement.)

5. Two scholarships will be awarded for the 2017-2018 Academic year to entering freshman. Scholarship amounts will be dependent upon funding.
